

September Project LAUNCH Update:

In an effort to build in-state capacity to implement the Pyramid Model, Project LAUNCH is offering several intensive trainings for the three focus populations of the model – early childhood teachers, home visitors, and family support professionals. Please contact Lara Quiroga for more information.

- Train-the-Trainer of Positive Solutions for Families Facilitators. Only facilitators previously trained through Project LAUNCH and/or the Pyramid Model Consortium are eligible. Training will be held September 28-29. Trainers will receive technical assistance via conference calls every other month for one year through the Pyramid Model Consortium.
- Positive Solutions for Families* Facilitator Training. Applications were due September 8th, but space may still be available. Training will be held October 24-25. We hope to train another 25 parent education facilitators from throughout the state. Facilitators will receive technical assistance via conference calls every other month for one year through the Consortium.
- PIWI (Parents Interacting With Infants) Training. Home visitors, parent/child group leaders, and other providers working with parents and young children in home-based settings and their supervisors are the target audience. We plan to train 25-30 people from throughout the state on October 18-19. Register at: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/piwi-parents-interacting-with-infants-training-tickets-36905978776>. Note: This training is full, but please register so that we can notify you if a space opens. We are securing funds for additional training dates.
- Pyramid Model PIWI 2.0. Supervisors in home visiting programs will be trained how to support their staff using PIWI. Supervisors will attend 2 days of training and then receive technical assistance via conference calls every month for one year through the Consortium. This training will be held November 2-3. Supervisors should register for the PIWI training above and then register for PIWI 2.0 at: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/piwi-20-supervisor-training-tickets-36906483285>. Note: This training is full, but please register so that we can notify you if a space opens. We are securing funds for additional training dates.
